Easter Triumph Easter Joy

I was just remembering the first time I viewed "The Passion of the Christ" with my wife, Priscilla and my eldest son, Andrew; it was Holy week 2004. It is hard to put into words the feelings and emotions that this powerful film stirred in us. As many times as I have read the scriptures, heard the story, or listened to sermons about the Passion, it was not until I saw this suffering of our Lord with my own eyes and heard His anguish with my own ears, that I came to realize just how great a sacrifice He made for you and for me. The film was able to draw us into a sense of actually being with Jesus as he fulfilled the scriptures and gave His life for our sins.

We put ourselves before God and our neighbors every day. We are unwilling to give our time, talent, and treasure to God unless we can dictate what it is we want in return. We refuse to trust his word, follow His commandments, and give Him our lives. In short, we, like His original disciples that fateful week, believe that Jesus is powerless to overcome this world that mocks Him and we hide ourselves lest we too share His fate.

We felt almost as if we were traveling with Him and His disciples, watching His humiliation, beating, and crucifixion. However, it is not good for us to just feel sorry for Jesus' suffering. We must be willing to believe that what He did was for a purpose. It was part of a plan that God the Father set in motion at the beginning of creation. It was done so that the price of our sins, which is death and damnation, was paid in full. Why was Jesus suffering so profound? Because our sinfulness knows no bounds.

As I watched the final moments of the movie and saw the body of Jesus laid in the arms of His mother, Mary, I felt alone and beaten. I was actually afraid that the story of The Passion would end right there—with the body of my Lord, lifeless and powerless being laid in His tomb. I was feeling what Peter and John felt.

I was feeling what Mary and Magdalene felt. My eyes were filled with tears. My heart wanted to say, "NO! Not Him, but me. It is me that sinned, not him. It is me who should suffer, not my Lord." But I didn't say it; and I and my family were sure that the scene had faded to black for the last time when we heard a strange sound. It was a sound like a rock being slid over another rock. It was still black, but the sound got louder and it seemed as if the dawn was about to rise when we witnessed the briefest and most fleeting image of Jesus, no longer bent over in pain, but rising to His feet and leaving an empty tomb to be found on that first Easter morning. It was then that those tears of sorrow turn to tears of Joy. It was Him. He had risen. We all must know of the great gift Jesus gave as He suffered and died for us that first Holy Week. But, we must also know that from that suffering and death came salvation and eternal life through the Resurrection of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Alleluia, The Lord has risen;
 The Lord has risen indeed, Alleluia.
 May the blessing of the Risen Lord be with us
 all this day and always, Amen!

The Rev. Paul Van Sant Sr. M. Div., Th. M.

Music

Notes

The people of God sing. The role of music in worship is biblical. After escaping from the Egyptians and crossing the Red Sea the people of Israel sang a song to the Lord (Exodus 15). Singing was part of Israel's formal worship in both tabernacle and temple (1 Chronicles 6:31-32, 16:42). The Psalms bear rich testimony that in joy and sorrow, in praise and lament, the faithful raise their voices in song to God. Hymn singing was practiced by Jesus and His disciples (Matthew 26:30). The Apostle Paul instructed the Colossians, "Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teach and admonish one another in all wisdom; and with gratitude in your hearts sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to God. And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him (Colossians 3:16-17). (excerpted from Faithforward.org, The theology and Place of Music in Worship by RCA Commission on Worship.)

Matthew 26:30 says "And when they had sung a hymn, they went out into the Mount of Olives." They sang a hymn as they were preparing to leave the last supper. I wish that I knew what they had sung. The next verses in Chapter 26 of Matthew take us to Gethsemane preceding the betrayal, the trial, and the crucifixion.

The disciples had no idea what was about to happen but Jesus did.

We do know what was coming for Christ and His followers and we are so very grateful. We can sing those songs of worship that remind us of what He did for us and that draw our hearts to Him. Don't forget to lift your voice throughout each day and sing of His love for you and your love for Him.

The choir has prepared some beautiful Lenten anthems in hopes that you will be lifted in your spirit toward a deeper relationship with Jesus. We would love to have you share your beautiful voice with us.

Thank you, again, Bill and Stefanie Bodine for the wonderful gift of the keyboard. It is going to add so much to our musical worship.

ECW NEWS

World Day of Prayer was held at St. Stephen's on Friday, March 4 at 1PM in person, and on zoom and you tube. We had 26 people in person, and 5 online. The countries this year were England, Northern Ireland, and Wales. The topic was from the Prophet Jeremiah on the plans that I have made for you. We were fortunate to have a special service created for the occasion with help on the musical side from our own Fred Fosechato on the piano and helping us sing, and a CD from WDP. Readers were: Cindy Williams, Kay Karlick, and Barbara Marshall, with Stefanie Bodine acting as the Narrator. Bill Bodine helped with the technology on zoom and youtube. Marge Pomykala and Johanna Soriano were ushers and helped with the refreshments. Featured were scones, Irish soda bread, biscuits, English cookies "biscuits", macrons, and more. We collected $103 for further grants and events for WDP-USA. Everyone was so grateful that we held this event so we could be more like the normal days we all remembered. Socialization was evident and everyone asked about next year. We will have a service here on the first Friday in March 2023 with a service for the country of Taiwan. Thank you for your help and support.

The BAKELESS BAKE SALE collected $160 for our first fundraiser of the year. We collect for this event all year long. You may make a donation to the Church (ECW) in cash or check (made out to St. Stephen's with ECW-Bakeless in the memo section). We appreciate your support for our ministry here.

Our next ECW Meeting will be on Thursday, June 9 at 1PM. Our speaker will be Colleen Dalvachio from VNA Hospice. She will share information on the various programs they have, and you can ask questions. We will be creating flowerpots of silk flowers to cheer those in hospice, and one for ourselves. Refreshments will be served. All are welcome.

ECW will again be hosting their English teas. The first one will be on Thursday, May 19 from 2-4PM. Members of ECW will help make sandwiches, and desserts, and help set the tables for tea. The second tea will be held on Thursday, September 15 from 2-4PM. There will be door prizes of brand new teapots, treasure auction, and a 50/50. Since we have not held these events since 2019, publicity and your help to sell tickets at $15 each are needed. Mark your calendars, bring your friends (women and men), and come enjoy a pleasant afternoon. Tickets are on sale.

Stefanie Bodine, President

ORDER OF ST. LUKE

The next meeting will be on Thursday, April 14 (second Thursday) after the healing service. It is Maundy Thursday. We are thinking about doing a healing mission in collaboration with Christ Church, Toms River, and possibly St. Stephen's in Waretown, but we have not worked out all the details yet. Josh Action, our North American OSL Director is having shoulder surgery and is unable to visit us at this time. Hopefully, he can join us in the near future. More details will follow on both events.

PRAYER OF THE ORDER OF ST. LUKE THE PHYSICIAN

Almighty God, who inspired Luke the Physician to set forth in the Gospel the love and healing power of Your son: Graciously continue in Your Church the love and power to heal, to the praise and glory of Your Name, through Jesus Christ, Our Lord. Amen

SHAPE YOUR WORRIES INTO PRAYERS!

Acknowledge your worries.

Ask God to answer your questions.

Appreciate the Lord with thanks and praise!

Abide in Jesus' love.

Act on what God tells you to do.

The outrageous claim of baptism is that not only does God love us, but God's love has the power to do things we long for: to heal, forgive, resurrect, make new, rebuild, give peace, foster hope, unstill purpose, and create communities of trust and joy.

DO YOU NEED PRAYERS FOR HEALING

Your prayers have been included in our Compline prayer list. Contact Fr. Paul. Susan Clarke, or Stefanie at (732) 350-2904 or houseofpink7@gmail.com if you have any questions or need prayers.

ST. STEPHEN'S PRAYER CHAIN

St. Stephen's is in need of additional members for our Prayer Chain. The Prayer Chain is a dedicated group of parishioners who will pray for any who are in need. If you are interested or would like further information, please contact Greta Pearl at 732-350-7584 for details. Greta is the contact when placing, on the Prayer Chain, your name or the names of family, neighbors, or friends who would like prayers for healing, comfort, or any other purpose.

March 2022

Prayer for Light and Life:

Let the musicians play and sing.

Let the authors and Poets, the blogger and post-ers write.

Let the dancers dance out life.

Let the actors play out truth.

Let all artists create and abandon in their chosen medium.

Let the gardeners and farmers and horticulturists nurture and invite the green things.

Let the speakers share wisdom.

Let the prayerful intercede, lament, and praise.

Let the wise be emboldened to speak forth and not discount themselves as “only one small voice”

Let us all flourish in what you have gifted and called us to do.

Let those who are seeking find.

Let the young play with all their fierce and joyful energy.

And let those who are full of many years rest, listen, and love, remaining salt and light for the earth.

Let there be light in our humanness in the midst of darkness.

Let there be life! Those words spoken at creation and just as fresh today.

Lord, let there be life.

FROM THE TREASURER'S DESK

Treasurer's Desk Hello, all. We're so happy fundraising is back!! The pre-St. Patrick's Day corned beef and cabbage event was wonderful—great job to all who made it possible. Not only was the food delicious, and the evening fun, with a treasure auction and 50/50, the ticket and other sales produced a nice bump to our treasury—much needed! With the mask mandate removed, we're hoping that some of the congregation will return. Not only do we miss those not attending, the loss of donations has affected us (and most churches) significantly. That hinders us from doing things we need to do.

Faith,

SHROVE PANCAKE SUPPER

This delicious meal was enjoyed by more than 30 people. The Men's Club (Al Thompson, Tom Larson, Richard Smithson, Peter Quigley, Glenn Mortimer, Bill Bodine), and ECW (Joann Smithson, Stefanie Bodine, Joy Frey, Dottie Kaster, Susan Quigley), and others helped set the tables, and they prepared a delicious pile of pancakes (whole wheat and regular), sausages, toppings, and syrup. Everyone enjoyed the fellowship and the delicious pancakes! Rave reviews asked when we can do this again!

THE FELLOWSHIP AND FUNDRAISING COMMITTEE

We recently met to plan events for the year ahead. Each month, a list will include upcoming events that we hope you will attend with your friends and family. Help support St. Stephen's, and enjoy a wonderful event as well.

CORNED BEEF AND CABBAGE DINNER

What a big success! We sold over 100 tickets! People were anxious to socialize and were grateful that we were open to share a wonderful meal with them. Corned beef, cabbage, potatoes, carrots, beverages, soda bread, rye bread, desserts were all delicious. Door Prizes, treasure auction, and 50/50, plus leftovers to go, after expenses was a Net of, $1770+ for the church. Thanks to the Men's Club and ECW--Al and Val Thompson, Bev and Tom Larson, Joann and Richard Smithson, Peter and Susan Quigley, Glenn Mortimer, Linda Chiappetta, Penny Scott, Johanna Soriano, Bob Virtue, Barbara Marshall, Kay Karlick, Marge Pomykala, Bill and Stefanie Bodine, for making everything happen from set-up to food, music, door prizes, treasure auction, ticket sales, clean-up. Everyone is looking forward to our next event.

THANK YOU TO EVERYONE THAT USES THE KITCHEN

Thanks to every group and individual that uses the kitchen and puts everything back for the next person, coffee hour, or event. Thank you for cleaning up. After coffee hour or event, it is great that people take the remaining items home, share them with others, freeze them, or throw out the crumbs that remain. It makes it easier for everyone to be prepared for the next event, or coffee hour.

Amish Baked Oatmeal

This wholesome family favorite can be prepared in advance and tastes a lot like a cinnamon oatmeal cookie. I typically take a minimalist approach, but the recipe is easy to customize through the addition of raisins, nuts, etc. If doubling the recipe, use a 9×13 baking dish, adding a few minutes to the cooking time as needed.

Yield: 6-8 servings

Ingredients:

- 2 large eggs
 - 1/2 cup packed brown sugar
 - 1/2 tablespoon baking powder
 - 1/2 tablespoon vanilla
 - 1 teaspoon cinnamon
 - 1/4 teaspoon kosher salt
 - 1/4 cup butter, melted
 - 1 1/4 cups milk
 - (regular, almond, etc.--choose your favorite)
- 3 cups old-fashioned rolled oats

Instructions:

Grease an 8-inch square baking dish or other 1 1/2-quart casserole and set aside.

In a mixing bowl, whisk the eggs and then add the brown sugar, baking powder, vanilla, cinnamon, and salt. Mix well--you don't want any lumps.

Whisk in the melted butter and milk. Add the oats and stir to thoroughly combine. Transfer the mixture to the prepared baking dish.

At this point, you can cover and refrigerate overnight or as little as one hour. (This gives the oats time to absorb some of the liquid.) When ready to bake, allow the oatmeal to sit at room temperature while the oven preheats to 350 degrees F. Bake, uncovered, for 30 minutes (give or take a few depending on oven and proportions of selected baking dish) or until just set in the middle.

Serve warm with milk or yogurt, fruit, and/or other favorite oatmeal toppings. Add a drizzle of maple syrup or a sprinkle of brown sugar if more sweetness is preferred. Baked oatmeal can also be enjoyed cold or at room temperature and may be served like a muffin, with no toppings.

Notes

For breakfast at-the-ready, I have gotten into the habit of baking the oatmeal in the evening and allowing it to sit at room temperature overnight. After breakfast, I cover and refrigerate any leftovers to better maintain freshness. The baked oatmeal will keep for about a week in the refrigerator and may be frozen.

238TH DIOCESAN CONVENTION:

Convened was convened by Bishop Stokes on 5 March 2022. The highlight of the convention involved additional funding requirement of a full-time position to address reparations. The 2023 budget will be designed to include this position. Missionary status was granted to several churches in the diocese. Various committee reports were accepted. For more detailed information, please visit the dioceseofnj.org website.

BLESSING OF THE BIKES:

The committee is working diligently to make this a successful and memorable event. We are asking for sponsors and donations, specifically; $150 buys a sponsorship and name on a banner and donations of gift cards and miscellaneous NEW items would be appreciated. If you have a friend or relative who would like to be a sponsor or make a donation for the raffle drawings, it would of great benefit to the event and the church. Please contact Joy Frey if you can help.
