From the Rector's Desk...

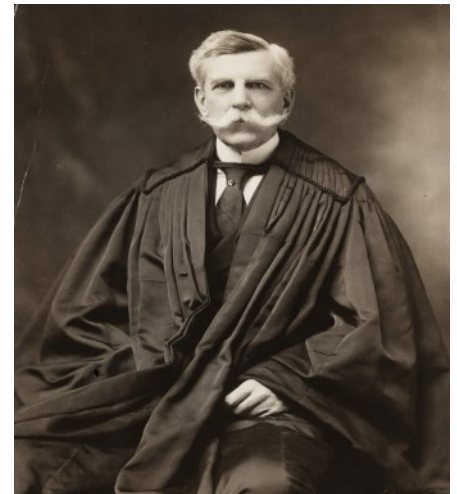

The Season of Lent

The season of Lent has traditionally been associated with the practice of "giving something up." Most of us give up something that is bad for us: smoking, sweets, staying up too late on the computer. Some of us get more creative and try to start a new habit that is good for us: reading the Bible, spending quality time with our family, going to an art class, attending church every Sunday.

The giving up approach comes from the fact that Jesus went without food for forty days when he was forced out into the desert by the Holy Spirit, after his baptism. During Lent we have an opportunity to share that process with him. The doing something new approach also comes from Jesus' time in the desert, because he emerged a better and more prepared person than when he went in.

In both cases we are looking at what we do as a Christian individual. In other words, we associate our Christianity with our actions. We believe that what we do is who we are. A Christian does certain things and doesn't do other things. But is that all there is to it?

It seems that there could be some very important issues we could probe into during our Lenten or desert experience.

Oliver Wendell Holmes said it well. He said: "What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us." Applied to Lent, this would mean that we use these forty days, not to keep a tally of what we did or didn't do, but rather to take the time to look deeply into our very souls revealing what makes us who we are. To uncover the difference between what we have put into ourselves, and what God has put into us that we might be called his daughters and sons.

What makes us who we are? It is not what we have done in the past. As a parish it is not our endowment, our solar panels, our outreach ministries, or even our baptismal tub. All these things are simply things that have occurred in our family.

It is not any action we may take in the future. It is not giving more, attending more frequently, mowing the lawn, or putting in a pet cemetery.

What makes us who we are is the Spirit within us that drives us out into the world to accomplish the will of God. It is called compassion, mercy, Godly fear, justice, righteousness, love, service, forgiveness, and faithfulness.

What we do is always associated with a motive. The motive is the reason we act. Do we give to say we gave, or do we give because we are moved from within to relieve the suffering of others? Do we cease a behavior because we don't want to suffer the consequences or because we want to care for the body God has given us and set a good example for others?

This Lent, let us look at "what lies within us" and who put it there. The most frequently reported feeling in today's society is fear and uncertainty regarding the Covid virus. Who puts that fear in our hearts? Certainly not God. God promises us that he is with us always, to protect and guide us. So how do we deal with our uncertainty, our fears, and doubts? Buy listening to God's Spirit within us. We will all have an opportunity to hear Jesus speak to us through the parables of the New Testament in our Lenten Bible Study entitled "Embracing the Uncertain" starting Tuesday March 1st at 11:00 am and/or 5:00 pm. Each week we will look at a different parable and see how God has prepared us to deal with the many uncertainties of life, and then apply those learnings to our current situation. Join us in-person at the church, on Zoom, and on YouTube.

Certainly, we can give up something that is bad for us. Certainly, we can try to develop a positive and Godly discipline in our lives. However, whatever we choose to do, let us do it because God drives us out into the desert of life with a motivation that reflects our membership in the body of his Son Jesus Christ.

May each of us become more compassionate, merciful, filled with Godly fear, just, righteous, loving, of service to others, forgiving, and faithful this Lent and throughout our Christian walk together.

God Bless us all as we seek His will in our lives,

The Rev. Paul Van Sant Sr. M. Div., Th. M.

The following is an excerpt from ‘MY UTMOST FOR HIS HIGHEST’ by Oswald Chambers. As we enter this time of lent remember that “songbirds are taught to sing in the dark...”. We have gone through a dark time in the recent past. Now as we are headed into Lent, it isn’t really a dark time. It is a time of reflection and anticipation. I think all dark time should be just that. Job said “When He has tried me, I shall come forth as gold.” We can use this time to anticipate the gold that God has planned for us.

The Discipline of Hearing:

“Whatever I tell you in the dark, speak in the light; and what you hear in the ear, preach on the housetops.” Matthew 10:27

Sometimes God puts us through the experience and discipline of darkness to teach us to hear and obey Him. Song birds are taught to sing in the dark, and God puts us in the “the shadow of His hand” until we learn to hear Him (Isaiah 49:2). “Whatever I tell you in the dark”—pay attention when God puts you into darkness, and keep your mouth closed while you are there. Are you in the dark right now in your circumstances, or in your life with God? If so, then remain quiet.

When you are in the dark, listen, and God will give you a very precious message for someone else once you are back in the light.

After every time of darkness, we should experience a mixture of delight and humiliation. If there is only delight, I question whether we have really heard God at all. We should experience delight for having heard God speak, but mostly humiliation for having taken so long to hear Him! Then we will exclaim, “How slow I have been to listen and understand what God has been telling me!” And yet God has been saying it for days and even weeks.

But once you hear Him, He gives you the gift of humiliation, which brings a softness of heart—a gift that will always cause you to listen to God now.

Come out and sing with us through Lent as we look forward to the celebration of our Savior’s resurrection.

Esther Graham, Minister of Music

A Scripture on Stewardship

Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master.

ECW NEWS

ECW is conducting their first fundraiser of the year--the Bakeless Bake Sale. Instead of having each one of us bake a cake, pie, cookies, or whatever, and then buy each other's items, we ask you to put a donation in the BAKELESS BAKE SALE envelopes available in the Narthex. ECW has not held a fundraiser since 2019 and their treasury is very low. We are unable to help the church until we do some fundraisers. We appreciate your support.

ECW plans to have their next meeting on Thursday, June 9 at 1PM. All women are members of ECW. More details will be forthcoming soon.

Stefanie Bodine, President

ORDER OF ST. LUKE

The Order of St. Luke meets on the second Thursday of each month following the healing service. Our next meeting will be on March 10. We have returned to our book study of God's Healing River by Jack Sheffield. When we complete the book, we have a study CD to share, and we will select the next book to study.

We are still discussing holding a Healing Mission, possibly on zoom. Our North American OSL President is having surgery, so his visit to our area has been postponed. We still hope that he will be able to join us at some time in the future. Our nearby chapters in Toms River and Waretown have been contacted so they can join us.

On February 10, our quarterly Conveners Meeting will be on zoom. Some of us will be on zoom for a virtual conference on February 18-19 on "Dispelling the Darkness".
Stefanie and Bill Bodine, Co-Conveners

Some thoughts from OSL

Have you looked up lately? Often our own struggles prevent us from doing so. Also, we assume that the way things are, are the way they will stay. Sometimes it takes too much of our energy to imagine anything different. That is until we see an opening in the clouds that provides a clear vision of the radiant summit. Then our perspective is restored, we are re-energized, and we can pursue God's dream.

Have you ever dreamed what the body of Christ would look like if it more closely reflected his priorities? Jesus' life was devoted to healing! He modeled what God's dream for us looks like in real life. Holy Spirit, show us what our churches will look like as they more closely mirror Jesus' ministry. Now is the time to nurture that dream.

Healing can become as central to the church as teaching and preaching, just as it was for Jesus. Empowered by peace, prayer, and the Holy Spirit--we can do what Jesus did and celebrate the healing that is present now with

PRAYER OF THE ORDER OF ST. LUKE THE PHYSICIAN

Almighty God, who inspired Luke the Physician to set forth in the Gospel the love and healing power of Your son: Graciously continue in Your Church the love and power to heal, to the praise and glory of Your Name, through Jesus Christ, Our Lord. Amen

SHAPE YOUR WORRIES INTO PRAYERS!

Acknowledge your worries.

Ask God to answer your questions.

Appreciate the Lord with thanks and praise!

Abide in Jesus' love.

Act on what God tells you to do.

The outrageous claim of baptism is that not only does God love us, but God's love has the power to do things we long for: to heal, forgive, resurrect, make new, rebuild, give peace, foster hope, unstill purpose, and create communities of trust and joy.

from p. 31 of Lisa G. Saunders book, THE P IS SILENT: PREACH

If you are interested or would like further information, please contact Greta Pearl at 732-350-7584 for details. Greta is the contact when placing, on the Prayer Chain, your name or the names of family, neighbors, or friends who would like prayers for healing, comfort, or any other purpose.

COME AND SEE!!!

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

This year we will be celebrating this event in person at St. Stephen's on Friday, March 4 at 1PM. Each year, people all over the world celebrate with a service written by women from a country. This year's topic is: "I KNOW THE PLANS I HAVE MADE FOR YOU" based on Jeremiah 29:11 on the letter from the Prophet Jeremiah to the survivors carried into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon by King Nebuchadnezzar. The countries represented are England, Wales, and Northern Ireland. This is an ecumenical event with all denominations welcome. Refreshments will be served. There will be a free will offering. Come join us as we welcome other people from other churches that will join us. All are welcome!

Anyone wishing to request a memorial or honor a birthday or anniversary with a donation is welcomed to contact Valerie Thompson. Also, please continue to add your name and memorial to the chart in the Narthex as you are able. The Guild sincerely appreciates all donations and we thank you for your generosity.

In addition, the Altar Guild will be accepting memorial donations for Flowers and Decorations to beautify the Sanctuary for the 2022 Easter Holiday. Envelopes for this purpose will be found in the Narthex, or you can contact Valerie for information on how to submit your memorial.

We encourage all interested parties to consider volunteering for the Altar Guild. Our membership has seriously diminished, so your service is definitely needed and would be greatly appreciated. Please contact Valerie if you are interested in learning about this very rewarding service.

If you have any questions, please call Altar Guild Flower Chair, Valerie Thompson, at 732-657-4510.

Thank you and God Bless.

FROM THE TREASURER'S DESK

We've had our Annual Meeting, and following are some highlights of the Treasury presentation.

Most important pledges are not as high as last year, and significantly down from previous years. Most of the downfall is attributed to COVID. Of course, a few elderly members have moved elsewhere with family. We are managing to keep up with bills; barely. However, our pledge to the Diocese has not been paid. For the last couple of years, we have managed to get it reduced, however. If you have not yet sent in your pledge cards, it would be wonderful if you would to that soon. If you need a card, please let us know. Your financial support is vital, and most appreciated.

Giving statements have been available in the Narthex for some time. The last of those not picked up are being mailed tomorrow. If you need a financial statement, please contact me.

In His Service,

Gerrie Vergona
Treasurer

Help Wanted

Lay Eucharistic Ministers are needed to serve the chalice at both services--8 AM and 10:15AM. We need your help--join us as a LEM, Lector, Altar Guild member, Usher or a Tech helper. Training will be provided. See Fr. Paul if you can help. This is a wonderful opportunity to serve our Lord, parish and community.

A Friend in Need

Dear Friends:

I am sending this request to you because I am in need of a living donor kidney. Presently, I do home dialysis every day for 9 hours each time. By getting a living donor, I would be able to lead a normal life again.

The donor does not have to be a match to me. St. Barnabas Hospital will match that donor kidney to someone, and they then find me a matching donor. It is a win, win for 2 people. The donor can be a complete stranger willing to do this unselfish act. I am praying for a special angel to help. If you have any questions, please call me at (732) 330-6781, or the St. Barnabas Transplant Center at (973) 322-5346.

Thank you for your consideration
